These requirements are set forth by Kairos Institute as of January 2009. Please note that requirements may change.

In addition, practitioners who cannot demonstrate proficiency through previous coursework will also be required to complete 1) Energetic Anatomy and Physiology, 2) Theory and Energetics of Points and Meridians, and 3) Assessment and the Five Elements.

In addition to the nine core courses and three required additional anatomy and point courses, practitioners must complete two electives, and 100 hours of study group mentorship. Students are required to demonstrate competency in the integration and application of this modality into clinical practice.

all hours must be initialed by Katie or Laurie
it is the student's responsibility to track clinical hours
